TALK OF THE TOWN

Dustbane.
No more dust on sweeping day—Dustbane.

New arrival of white muslin waists at Perry's.

Cash paid for watches, diamonds, gold and silver, at Burr's.

See the waists in window for Wednesday sale at Vaughan's.

See Abbott's new line of ladies' one-piece silk dresses at $10.00.

J. Casellini returned yesterday from a visit with friends in Boston.

Levi Cross of Northfield was in the city to-day on a business visit.

The new things in raincoats and topcoats from the Frank McWhorter Co.

Cut flowers and funeral designs at Youngson's, 7 Pearl street. Tel. 432-11.

H. J. Thwing returned yesterday from a business trip through the middle West.

There will be a rehearsal of the Barre Citizens' band Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A daughter, Hazel May, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keyes yesterday morning.

David W. Faulkner is quite ill at his home on Washington street, threatened with fever.

Chicken-pie supper served by the men at Congregational church to-morrow evening, 25c.

Children's black and tan hose, 15c, two pairs for 25c. Try the kind we sell. Veale & Knight.

Mrs. L. W. Heath returned yesterday to her home in Hardwick, after a visit with friends in the city.

Mrs. G. P. Taylor has returned to her home in East Barre, after a stay of several days at Fred Keyes' home.

The assessors' office will be open evenings until eight o'clock, until further notice, for the receiving of inventories.

Neal Ralph of Brookfield visited in the city last night, while on his way home from a short trip to Woodsville, N. H.

Mrs. Lloyd Derick and son, Arnold, who have been visiting relatives in Barre, have returned to their home in Northfield.

There will be a special meeting of the I. O. O. F. local No. 26, Wednesday evening, April 6, at 7:30, in painters' hall. G. E. Miller, pres.

Rev. F. A. Wells returned to-day to his home in Randolph Center, after a visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Wells.

Tickets for the spending alumni dance, Woodmen's hall, Thursday evening, are 75 cents per couple and 25 cents for extra ladies' tickets.

Are you ready for a jolly good laugh? Then see Bob Jones as Marcus Brutus Snip, in pursuit of fortune, in "A Night Off," and you are sure of it.

Anyone having furs to repair or store, please bring them in. We insure against fire loss for one per cent. of your valuation. Frank McWhorter Co.

Mrs. Frank Drabury and daughter, Elva, have returned from a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Pittsfield and Manchester, N. H., and Boston, Mass.

A meeting of the order of the Owls will be held in Forsters' hall Wednesday evening, April 6, at 7:30 o'clock. Members are requested to be present. A. M. Smith, secretary.

Rev. John W. Barnett and family have rented the tenement at 9 Averill street. Their household goods have arrived from Marlborough, Mass., and are being moved into the tenement to-day.

Mrs. Ellen K. Parke went to Calais to-day, being called by the serious illness of R. L. Clark's sister, Mrs. Martin Smith. The illness started with the gripe and heart trouble has developed.

The business meeting of the Athena club will be held at the home of Mrs. Willis A. Lehoucq, 48 Washington street, Tuesday, April 5, at 7:30. A large attendance is requested, and each lady is asked to bring her federation dues.

Moore Brothers of this city have put up a derrick at the quarry in Anahle, N. H., and will start at once putting the stone on the market. They have a polished monument set up at their shed in this city, and granite men who have seen it say that it is far ahead of the Quincy granite for polished work. The color of the stone is green.

The comedy, "A Night Off," is one of Augustin Daly's most popular plays. It has been twice given in Montpelier by local talent this season, once in February and again at the closing of the opera house in April. This fact is of special interest to us, as it is to be presented at the Barre opera house Friday, April 8, by the same cast, most of whom are well known by our citizens.

Clean your carpets, rugs, portieres, blankets, mattresses, couches and all your upholstery, with the vacuum cleaner. Will save wear and tear. You don't have to take your carpets up. There is no dust flying for you to inhale. All work satisfactory. Price, $1 per hour. Will do as much in one hour as a man will do in all day. C. D. Averill, phone 31-31. G. W. Blanchard, phone 403-2.

Readers of the Boston Sunday Globe saw several of the characters in the colored section represented on the Barre opera house stage last night, when "The Boy Artist" was presented. No trace of a plot can be seen, except the numerous plots which young Billy hatches up in order to bring confusion on "Prof. Wise" and the several other glibly people in the cast. The comedians brought out much laughter and a few of the girls proved to be good dancers.

Young Men, Do You Care?

If you don't, take anything in the way of clothing that happens to be offered to you. But if you want smart clothes, clothes that radiate style, clothes that are dominated by the same spirit and life that makes and keeps you young, resolve now to wear ROSMAN (Union made) CLOTHES. They fit? Yes. Good patterns? Yes. Well made and economical? Yes. These are qualities common to many makers' goods. ROSMAN (Union made) CLOTHES are more. They fit your ideas and tastes. They harmonize with the life you live and want to live. They are made to be as much a part of you as your features, your manners, your speech. No other clothes can take their place—if you care. Leading clothiers throughout the country sell Rosman Clothes for $10, $12, $13.50, $15, $18, $20, $22, $25. We do the same.
